All high school juniors with an interest in the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) are invited to apply to attend the Fall 2014 Sacramento FBI Teen Academy, to be held at Sacramento Division headquarters on Friday, November 21, 2014 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Punctuality, professional behavior, and appropriate dress is required of all students selected to attend the program.

Students will be evaluated based on both the application (GPA, school activities, and community involvement) and essay to determine which students shall be offered a seat in the class. No element will be the sole basis of evaluation, and students should approach the application process thoughtfully.

Application packages for the Fall 2014 class will be accepted by mail or hand delivery at the following address until 4 p.m. on Friday, October 10, 2014. Incomplete, late, faxed, or e-mailed applications will not be accepted.

Common FBI Teen Academy Questions

Q. Is the program exclusive to high school juniors?

A. The program has been designed for all high school juniors (public, private, and home school). This enables students to share the information they have learned and serve as peer mentors, when appropriate, during the remaining academic year.

Q. Is the essay important?

A. Yes. The essay is the first element of the application package that is reviewed by our panelists. This "first impression" offers the review panel insight into the student's expectations and reason for attending.

Q. Is a particular GPA required?

A. GPA is not the sole method of evaluation, and no student will be assured a seat by GPA alone. All students must submit a well-written essay as outlined in the checklist. The essay serves as a "first impression" for the panel and carries more weight than GPA.

O. Does a student have to have specific experience or interest in law enforcement to be a successful candidate?

A. A student does not need to be in a criminal justice program, law program, explorers program, ROTC, etc. The primary objective is to identify students who are capable of leadership and have an interest in the FBI.

O. Is this experience similar to an internship?

A. The FBI Teen Academy is not an internship. While students may be exposed to case studies drawn from adjudicated cases and may be given hands-on experiences in a simulated scenario, students will not be exposed to active cases, day-to-day operations, or sensitive information.

Q. Can a journalism student or administrator attend as an observer?

A. Due to space limitations and to ensure equal access, observers are not permitted to attend the class. The FBI media team will assist journalism departments with information and materials needed to cover the Sacramento FBI Teen Academy upon request.
